

T-Ball League: Rules of Play

- 1) All players will hit each inning.
- 2) Coaches shall monitor the sidelines of the team at bat, allowing only one hitter on deck.
- 3) Hitters shall be instructed not to throw bat after hitting.
- 4) Scores shall be kept on a scoreboard that only has 2 identical numbers, ties seem to occur frequently.
- 5) The two teams will shake hands at the end of the game.
- 6) Maximum of seven players are allowed in the infield during a game. The remaining players must play outfield positions, rotating players between innings.
- 7) There is no catcher; coaches are responsible for assistance with plays at the plate.
- 8) Teams that are at bat, players must be sitting on the bench and/or sidelines for safety reasons.
- 9) Sideline monitoring is instrumental for protection purposes.
- 10) Games will be called, under agreement from both coaches, due to darkness for safety.